

WHAT IS THE MOBILE TELE-ASSISTANCE SERVICE FOR VICTIMS OF GENDER VIOLENCE (ATENPRO)

- ➔ Atenpro offers assistance and protection to victims of gender violence.
- ➔ It is a mobile app that connects victims to specialists in gender violence at any time of the day or night and alerts police to the exact location of the alarm.

Access to this resource is available in the following circumstances:

1

When the victim does not live with the aggressor.

2

When the victim participates in programs that provide specialized assistance to victims of gender violence.

3

When the victim has filed a complaint of gender violence or has obtained a restraining order against the aggressor.

This service is provided through the Alicante Department of Equality. To apply for assistance, come to our offices or schedule an appointment by calling

965 10 50 86 or 679 30 63 82

Given current stay-at-home (confinement) regulations, just call one of these two numbers and we will provide immediate assistance.

Remember that your safety is our priority.
